If at the baseball world has been possible with issues of substance as "Centerfield" by John Fogerty, "Catfish" by Bob Dylan or the update in rock of the great stories of baseball conducted by The Baseball Project, why not try it with football/soccer?, in fact as other futbolista Ibrahimovich, Van Nistelroy or Diego Maradona himself have them.

LOS RADIADORES and LA GRAN ESPERANZA BLANCA have been clear. LOBO DIARTE & MARIO ALBERTO KEMPES deserved it. And putting in the service of memory their weapons, they have done.

In the summer of 1978, Kempes was the best player in the world, twice "scorer" in the Spanish league and champion and '78 World Cup top scorer, and also was one of ours.
